

Media contact:
Christy Smith
Marketing Specialist
AgSouth Farm Credit
Csmith@agsouthfc.com

AgSouth Farm Credit Rummage Sale Raises Funds for Safe Haven

STATESBORO, Ga. (November 8, 2011) – Debbie Vives, Fiscal Grants Manager of Safe Haven, announced today that AgSouth Farm Credit hosted a Benefit Rummage Sale Saturday, November 5, for Safe Haven. Anything from furniture, house wares, toys and clothes for adults to newborns was for sale along with baked goods and hot chocolate.

Eight AgSouth employees along with a couple friends, John Morris, Sandy Morris and Cathy Deal worked together to make the event a success. Andrea Whitfield, organizer of the event, was proud to announce that over $1100 was raised for Save Haven. All the items not sold at the rummage sale were donated to the organization as well.

AgSouth employees present check to Save Haven. From the left: Yaya Liu, Lisa Hutchinson, Andrea Whitfield with Veta Walker and Debbie Vives.

Safe Haven is a nonprofit organization whose purpose is to provide a safe place for victims of abusive relationships. The program offers a 24 hour crisis line, safe and confidential housing, linkages with community agencies, children's services, emotional support, community education services, legal and social services advocacy, household establishment assistance, follow-up services and parenting support/education.

All services are free and confidential. You do not need to reside in a domestic violence program to receive services. For more information call 1.800.33.HAVEN or email safehaven@nctv.com .

About AgSouth

AgSouth Farm Credit provides loans for land, equipment and production agriculture; crop insurance; leasing; and home mortgages. The association has more than 7,240 members and is headquartered in Statesboro, Ga., with administrative offices in Spartanburg, S.C., and Orangeburg, S.C. The cooperative's 26 branches serve 59 Georgia and 34 South Carolina counties. For more information, visit www.agsouthfc.com.