

Clark David Promoted to Commercial Loan Officer at AgSouth Farm Credit

Statesboro, GA: Van McCall, Chief Lending Officer of AgSouth Farm Credit, announced that Clark David has been promoted to Commercial Loan Officer. Clark is located in the Madison office and will be primarily servicing Oconee, Putnam and Walton Counties.

Clark has a Bachelor's of Science in Forest Resources from the University of Georgia and is originally from Clark County. He has been working in banking since 2001 with a focus on commercial lending for the past six years. Clark has been working in the AgSouth Madison office for the past six months and currently resides in nearby Bogart with his family. He is involved with area Homebuilders Associations, Board of Realtors, Chamber of Commerce and Cattlemen's groups. Clark also works with Habitat for Humanity and is an active member of Outdoors without Limits.

According to Regional Vice President Ricky Cochran, "Clark has been a welcomed addition to our AgSouth team. He offers exemplary service to our customers and has already proven to be essential in growing our business."

AgSouth Farm Credit is one of the largest lending cooperatives in the Southeast. As of September 30, 2011, AgSouth had more than 7,400 members; $1.65 billion in assets; and $254 million in capital and allocated accounts.

AgSouth provides loans for agriculture, real estate, and rural homes, and offers leasing for automobiles, equipment, buildings, and commercial operations. The association also makes secondary home loans for home purchases, home construction, home improvements, and refinances.

For more information, call Clark David at 706.342.2352, toll free at 888.327.3969 x5 or email to cdavid@agsouthfc.com.