Earlier this year, AgSouth Farm Credit awarded 50 $500 grants to community farmers markets in our area. To be eligible to receive a grant, applicants had to provide a detailed marketing plan describing how they would use the grant funds to promote the market while incorporating the AgSouth name or logo in their promotions. A list of winners can be found at AgSouthFC.com.

To register or for more information, click on the AGAware logo on our home page at AgSouthFC.com. Certification. Seating is limited. To promote the market while incorporating the AgSouth name or logo in their promotions, a list of winners can be found at AgSouthFC.com.

For a list of winners, visit our home page at AgSouthFC.com. To be eligible to receive a grant, applicants had to provide a detailed marketing plan describing how they would use the grant funds to promote the market while incorporating the AgSouth name or logo in their promotions. A list of winners can be found at AgSouthFC.com.
WOULD YOU LIKE AN OPPORTUNITY TO LEAD YOUR COOPERATIVE?

The AgSouth Farm Credit 2017 Nominating Committee will be meeting in May to come up with the slate of candidates for Director positions. The following director regions will have board seats up for election at the annual stockholders’ meetings in August:

Region I:
- 5 seats – Representing Albemarle, Anderson, Cherokee, Chester, Greenville, Greenwood, Greenwood, Kershaw, Lancaster, Laurens, Lexington, Marlboro, Newberry, Orangeburg, Pickens, Richland, Saluda, Spartanburg, Union, and York counties in South Carolina.

Region II:
- 3 seats – Representing Aiken, Beaufort, Berkeley, Charleston, Colleton, Dorchester, Georgetown, Horry, Jasper, Lexington, Orangeburg, Palmetto, Richland, Saluda, Sumter, Union, and York counties in South Carolina.

The consolidation of AgSouth’s administrative and operations functions and to staff its headquarters in downtown Statesboro. The new AgSouth office complex will center around the company’s existing operations office at 40 North Main Street and the administrative office at 26 South Main. The expansion will include a 2-building to be constructed at the back of the property and will include approximately 30 offices and a meeting room available for the agricultural and rural sectors. The facilities will be joined by a green space area between the buildings. When completed, the complex will accommodate nearly three new determinations. The project is expected to be completed in late fall of 2018.

The decisions to consolidate in Statesboro were made after a year-long study by the Board of Directors. The study, which began in 2016, found that relocating from the offices in South Carolina and Georgia. The consolidation will allow the company to centralize operations, create efficiencies, and improve customer service.

WHO’S $28 MILLION RICHER?

OUR MEMBERS!
In March, AgSouth Farm Credit distributed to more than $27.5 million in cash profits, and more than $19 million was revolved from 2011 allocated surplus.

SPARTANBURG HAS A NEW LOCATION

AgSouth’s Spartanburg branch has a new address. The branch has moved into the Association’s administrative offices at 101 North Town Drive, just down the street from the former location. We are so excited to be in the new location.

FARM CREDIT ASSOCIATIONS OF GEORGIA SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS TO UGA STUDENTS

The Farm Credit Associations of Georgia (AgSouth, AgGeorgia and Southwest Georgia Farm Credit Associations) awarded grants to six University of Georgia students earlier this year to help them continue their education in the ag industry.

Congratulations!

AgSouth’s Director of Information Technology Brandon Dungloe was recognized by Statesboro as “Voted Best in Town” and named to the directory to the community.

Ask how you can share in them!®