WE’RE TURNING 100!

The Farm Credit System celebrates its 100th year of financing farmers and rural America on July 17. Through the good times and the bad, Farm Credit has been there to provide financing to support our rural communities, generation after generation.

AgSouth is proud to be a part of the Farm Credit System and is celebrating throughout the year with events and special advertising aimed at creating awareness of AgSouth and its heritage of helping rural America grow and prosper.

We’d love to highlight the transition of agriculture in our territory throughout the year as part of our celebration. If you have any mementos or photos showing your farm in transition, please send them in. We’ll post these to our Facebook page and may even use some of them in future editions of the magazine and to showcase at our stockholders meetings. Send your photos to RJernigan@AgSouthFC.com. She’ll send you a photo release form. Just sign it, return it, and then watch for your photos to be posted to our Facebook page!

And if you haven’t yet checked out our Facebook page, just sign in and put AgSouth Farm Credit in your search bar and like us! You’ll see what your association is doing to promote agriculture, view upcoming events and promotions, see photos of your friends and neighbors, and get links to articles from industry experts about what’s going on in agriculture. If you have an event you’d like us to consider for posting, send the information to Christy Smith at CSmith@AgSouthFC.com.

WHO’S $26 MILLION RICHER?
OUR MEMBERS!

In March AgSouth Farm Credit distributed approximately $26 million in cash from patronage and allocated surplus to our members! Eight million originated from 2015 profits, and $18 million was revolved from 2010 allocated surplus. This marks the 25th consecutive year that AgSouth has distributed profits to our members.

Since the association instituted the patronage program in 1991, we have returned more than $433 million in cash to our members, proving that We Put Our Profits in Your Pocket®!

HOW DOES $26 MILLION IN CASH AFFECT THE COMMUNITIES SERVED BY AGSOUTH?

We know that our patronage program puts dollars back in the hands of our member/borrowers. What you decide to do with your patronage refund is completely up to you: You might save it, purchase a new car or farm equipment, or use it to pay debts and expenses. Regardless of how you spend it, those dollars continue to work their way through your community.

Dr. David M. Kohl, Professor Emeritus of Agricultural Finance and Small Business Management and Entrepreneurship at Virginia Tech estimates that every dollar AgSouth returns to our customers has an estimated economic impact of five to ten dollars in our communities as a result of possible investment, spending, and employment.

Using those factors, $26 million in cash distributions has an estimated impact of approximately $129.5 million to more than a quarter of a billion dollars on the rural communities served by AgSouth.

* Loan must close by July 17
 Most home loans and any other loans subject to RESPA are ineligible for this promotion.
PHOTO CALENDAR CONTEST REMINDER

Don’t forget that the deadline to submit your photos for our 2017 Calendar Photo Contest is Tuesday, May 31! Submit your rural and ag-related photos online before midnight for an opportunity to win up to $400 and be featured in our 2017 calendar. If you entered last year and your photo wasn’t selected, you may enter it again. Visit AgSouthFC.com for contest rules or to enter your photos.

Two Growing Offices Get New Locations

Earlier this year AgSouth relocated its Jesup, Ga., and Allendale, S.C., offices to new, state-of-the-art facilities at more convenient locations. The new locations will allow room for the offices to accommodate staff to meet the needs of their growing customer base.

Jesup’s office opened in January at 855 Odom Highway. The new building replaces the old AgSouth office located at 311 East Cherry Street. The office has had a 32 percent increase in volume over the past five years and a 41 percent increase in membership.

Allendale opened its new office doors at 4930 Burton’s Ferry Road in March. The office was previously located on Highway 278. Allendale had a 18 percent increase in volume over the past five years and more than 3 percent increase in membership.

We invite you to stop by and tour our new facilities as we continue to grow.

AGSOUTH AWARDS $25,000 IN GRANTS to Area Farmers Markets

Earlier this year, AgSouth Farm Credit awarded 25 $1,000 grants to community farmers markets in our area. Twelve South Carolina markets and 13 Georgia markets received funds to promote their venues. The markets also received 100 reusable Think Outside the Store® bags to give to customers who shop there. This is the 5th year the association has helped support our local markets in this manner.

To be eligible to receive a grant, applicants had to provide a vendor list and detailed marketing plan describing how they would use the grant funds to promote the market while incorporating the AgSouth name or logo in their promotions. We received a total of 55 grant applications and are very happy that the program continues to draw new applicants, as well as encourage previous winners to share their ideas and create new ways of advertising their markets.
CROP INSURANCE PATRONAGE

By: Theron Anderson, SMM & Financially Related Services Director

Those who purchased crop insurance from AgSouth last year received $169,945 in cash returns earlier this spring. Another $396,539 was placed in an allocated surplus account in the members’ name. Combined, the total crop insurance patronage equaled a return to crop insurance customers of 43 percent of total crop insurance commissions less expenses. AgSouth has had a crop insurance patronage program for 12 consecutive years. Theron Anderson, Director of SMM and Financially-Related Services, explained the benefits of purchasing crop insurance from AgSouth this way. “When members purchase crop insurance from AgSouth, they get a return of a portion of our crop insurance profits AND help strengthen the association’s bottom line, increasing all of our members opportunities for a larger patronage return.”

Would You Like an Opportunity to LEAD YOUR COOPERATIVE?

The AgSouth Farm Credit 2016 Nominating Committee will be meeting in May to come up with a slate of candidates for three (3) director positions. The following director regions will have board seats up for election at the annual stockholders’ meetings:
